WHAT IS A COMPLAINT?

MHA regard a complaint as any expression of dissatisfaction about our action or lack of action, or about the standard of service provided by us or on our behalf.

Your complaint may involve more than one MHA service or be about someone working on our behalf.

WHAT CAN I COMPLAINT ABOUT?

You can complaint about things like:

- Failure or refusal to provide a service
- Inadequate quality or standard of service, or an unreasonable delay in providing a service
- Delays in responding to enquiries or requests
- Lack of provision, or the provision of misleading, unsuitable or incorrect advice or information
- A repair that has not been carried out properly or in an agreed timeframe
- Dissatisfaction with one of our policies or its impact on the individual
- Failure to properly apply law, procedure or guidance when delivering services
- Failure to follow the appropriate administrative process
- Conduct, treatment by or attitude of a member of staff or contractor (except where there are arrangements in place for the contractor to handle the complaint themselves); or
- Disagreement where there is a statutory procedure for challenging that decision, or an established appeals process followed throughout the sector.

WHAT CAN'T I COMPLAIN ABOUT?

There are things we can't deal with through our complaints handling procedure. These include:

- A routine first-time request for a service
- A request for compensation only
- Issues that are in court or have already been heard by a court or a tribunal (if you decide to take legal action, you should let us know as the complaint cannot then be considered under this process)
- Disagreement with a decision where there is a statutory procedure for challenging that decision (such as Freedom of Information and subject access requests), or an established appeals process followed throughout the sector
- A request for information under the Data Protection or Freedom of Information (Scotland) Acts
- A grievance by a staff member or a grievance relating to employment or staff recruitment
- A concern raised internally by a member of staff (which was not about a service they received, such as a whistleblowing concern)
- A concern about a child or an adult's safety
- An attempt to reopen a previously concluded complaint or to have a complaint reconsidered where we have already given our final decision
- Abuse or unsubstantiated allegations about our organisation or staff where such actions would be covered by our Unacceptable Actions Policy; or
- A concern about the actions or service of a different organisation, where we have no involvement in the issue (except where the other organisation is delivering services on our behalf)

If other procedures or rights of appeal can help you resolve your concerns we will give information and advice to help you.

WHO CAN COMPLAIN?

Anyone who receives, requests or is directly affected by our services can make a complaint to us. This includes the representative of someone who is dissatisfied with our service (for example, a relative, friend, advocate or adviser). If you are making a complaint on someone else's behalf, you will normally need their written consent. Please also read the section on getting help to make your complaint.

HOW DO I COMPLAIN?

You can complain in person at MHA office, by phone, in writing or by email.

It is easier for us to address complaint if you make them quickly and directly to the staff concerned. So please talk to a member of staff at the service you are complaining about. Then they can try to resolve the issue.

When complaining please tell us:

- Your full name and contact details
- As much as you can about the complaint
- What has gone wrong; and
- What outcome you are seeking

HOW LONG DO I HAVE TO MAKE A COMPLAINT?

Normally you must make your complaint within six months of:

- The event you want to complain about; or
- Finding out that you have a reason to complain

In exceptional circumstances, we may be able to accept a complaint after the time limit. If you feel that the time limit should not apply to your complaint, please tell us why.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I HAVE COMPLAINED?

STAGE 1: FRONTLINE RESPONSE

We aim to respond to complaints quickly (where possible, when you first tell us about the issue). This could mean an on-the-spot apology and explanation if something has clearly gone wrong, or immediate action to resolve the problem.

We will give you our decision at stage 1 in five working days or less, unless there are exceptional circumstances.

If you are not satisfied with the response we give at this stage, we will tell you what you can do next. If you choose to, you can take your complaint to stage 2. You must normally ask us to consider your complaints at stage 2 either:

- Within 6 months of the event you want to complain about or finding out that you have a reason to complain; or
- Within 2 months of receiving your stage 1 (if this is later)

In exceptional circumstances, we may be able to accept a stage 2 complaint after the time limit. If you feel that the time limit should not apply to your complaint, please tell us why.

STAGE 2: INVESTIGATION

Stage 2 deals with two types of complaint: where the customer remains dissatisfied after stage 1 and those that clearly require investigation, and so are handled directly at this stage. If you do not wish your complaint to be handled at stage 1, you can ask us to handle it at stage 2 instead.

When using Stage 2:

- We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 3 working days
- We will confirm our understanding of the complaint we will investigate and what outcome you are looking for
- We will try to resolve your complaint where we can (in some cases we may suggest using an alternative complaint resolution approach, such as mediation); and
- Where we cannot resolve your complaint, we will give you a full response as soon as possible, normally within 20 working days.

If our investigation will take longer than 20 working days, we will tell you. We will tell you our revised time limit and keep you updated on progress

WHAT IF I AM STILL DISSATISFIED?

If after we have given you our final decision, if you are still dissatisfied with our decision or the way we dealt with your complaint, you can ask the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman (SPSO) to look at it.

There are some complaints about housing that have an alternative route for independent review. We will tell you how to seek independent review when we give you our final response on your complaint.

The SPSO is an independent organisation that investigates complaints. They are not an advocacy or support service (but there are other organisations who can help you with advocacy or support). You can ask the SPSO to look at your complaint if:

- You have gone all the way through MHAs complaints handling procedure
- It is less than 12 months after you became aware of the matter you want to complain about; and
- The matter has not been (and is not being) considered in court.

The SPSO will ask you to complete a complaint form and provide a copy of our final response to your complaint. You can do this online at www.spsos.org.uk/complaint/form or call them on Freephone 0800 377 7330

You may wish to get independent support or advocacy to help you progress your complaint. See the section on Getting help to make your complaint.

CARE COMPLAINTS

If your complaint relates to a care service we provide, you can choose whether to complain to us or the Care Inspectorate. You can find out more about their complaints procedure, or make a complaint by contacting them.

The Care Inspectorate has several offices around Scotland. Please refer to: <http://www.scswis.com>

REPORTING A SIGNIFICANT FAILURE TO THE SCOTTISH HOUSING REGULATOR

The Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) can consider issues raised with them about 'significant performance failures'. A significant performance failure is defined by the SHR as something that a landlord does or fails to do that puts the interest of its tenants at risk, and which the landlord has not resolved. This is something that is a systemic problem that does, or could, affect all of a landlord's tenants. If you are affected by a problem like this, you should first report it to us. If you are affected by a problem like this, you should first report it to us. If you have told us about it but we have not resolved it you can report it directly to the SHR.

A complaint between an individual tenant and a landlord is not a significant performance failure. Significant performance failures are not, therefore, dealt with us for more information about significant performance failures. The SHR also has more information on their website www.scottishhousingregulator.gov.uk
